Gabor F. Matos, M.D.

Interventional Cardiology, Carotid Artery Disease and Peripheral Vascular Disease

"Scientific research studies make cardiology one of the most exact disciplines of medicine. I feel fortunate to be able to make a huge difference in the lives of many people, not only by decreasing their symptoms, but also prolonging their life. In addition, I enjoy the opportunities to do research and development, thereby contributing to the advancement of cardiology."
